Properties of some algebraically defined graphs
Raymond Viglione
2002

This thesis is concerned with the study of a family of graphs defined by systems of polynomial equations over finite fields. We explore the connectedness of some special classes of these graphs, along with their symmetries, the structure of their automorphism groups, and isomorphism classes.